A 13-month insurance period is required by the Traffic Authorities in UAE to cover for the one month registration grace period provided at the end of the 12-month registration period.

Can I cancel my Policy at any time?

Yes You can, but the UAE Ministry of Economy mandates the Insurance Company to obtain copies of the following documents before cancelling Section 2 (Third Party Liability) of the Policy:

- De-registration of vehiclee

- Number plate certificate

In case the Policy is cancelled, do You return the premium for the unexpired period?

Yes, as long as no claims were made during the Period of Insurance, a refund will be given to You, subject to the Short Rate Schedule.

Why can't the insurance and registration be in two different names?

The Policyholder should normally be both the main driver of the Insured Vehicle and the registered owner.

The Policyholder must have a financial interest in the Insured Vehicle. The traffic department will only register a vehicle in the name stated in the Certificate of Motor Insurance. This is a UAE traffic law requirement.

How do You calculate my Insurance premium?

A number of factors are used to calculate Your insurance premium. Amongst these factors are the age of the driver, length of driving experience, claims history, location, vehicle value and type.

Therefore, please reach out to us in case You are required to travel to Oman.

In case of selling my vehicle, is it possible to transfer the insurance to the buyer's name?

No, as the insurance premium and terms are affected by the profile and driving experience of the driver, it is not possible to transfer the cover from one driver to another.

I only have a Third Party Liability Policy. What will it cover?

The cover is compulsory as per the UAE law and it's features are:

- Death or bodily injury to any Third Party/person.
- Damages to Third Party property arising out of the use of Your vehicle.
